OFFERTORY HYMN

And When the Battle's Over

(Offering in aid of Greater Portmore Apostolic Deliverance Ministries Building Fund)

Opening Hymn

All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name

All hail the power of Jesus' name!

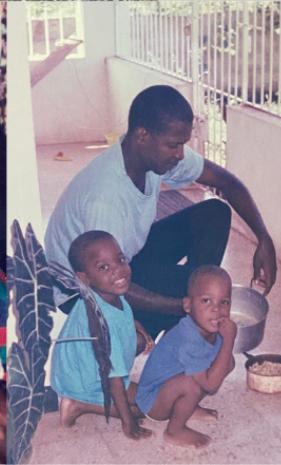

Let angels prostrate fall,
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all!

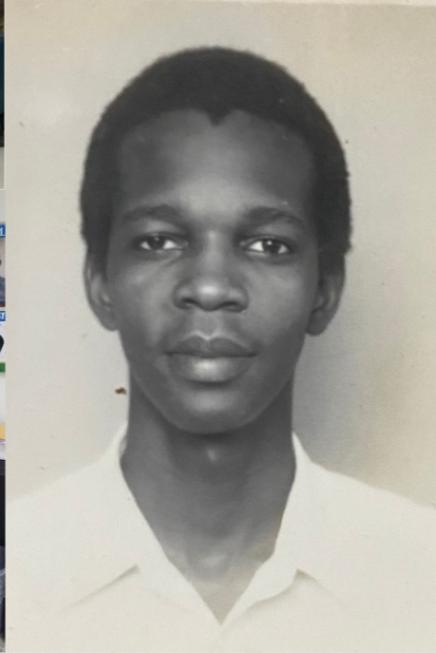

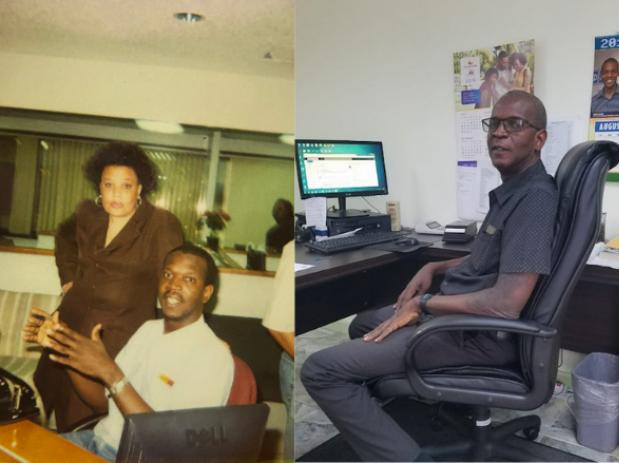

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all;
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all!

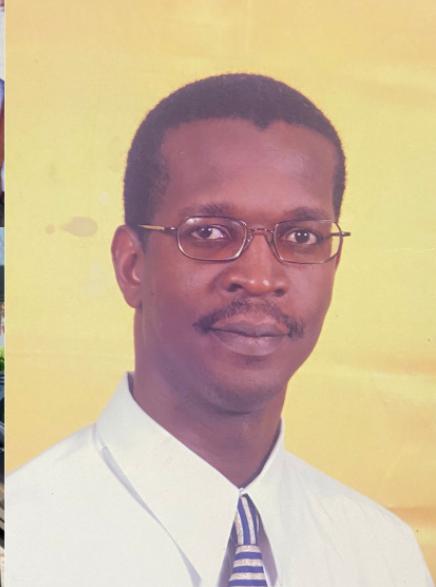

Let every kindred, every tribe
On this terrestrial ball
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all;
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all!

O that with yonder sacred throng
We at his feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all!

CLOSING REMARKS

Suffragan Bishop Oret Banton

Offertory Hymn

And When the Battle's Over

Am I a soldier of the cross,
A foll'-wer of the Lamb,
And shall I fear to own His Cause,
Or blush to speak His name?

Chorus

Must I be carried to the skies
On flow'-ry beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed thro' bloody seas?

Chorus

Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is there vile world a fried to grace
To help me on to God?

Chorus

Sure I must fight If I would reign,
Increase my courage, Lord:
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy Word

CHORUS

And when the battle's over we shall wear a crown
we shall wear a crown! Yes, we shall wear a crown!
And when the battle's over we shall wear a crown
In the new Jerusalem.

Orrett F. Campbell

Orrett Franklyn Campbell - O.C, Daddy, Orrett, Bro. Orrett - my loving husband, best friend, a kind-hearted soul, amazing father, confidant, brother, homemaker, traveling partner, prayer partner, Bible study companion, mission partner, and counselor. He loved people deeply, and I could go on forever. Words can hardly capture the essence of the remarkable man that he was; this is just a glimpse of my husband - this wonderful person.

Orrett was a true man of God, a stalwart, humble servant, and a passionate worshiper. His love for God was boundless, unwavering & sacrificial. He was relentless in his faith, determined to "hold out to the end" and finish the race set before him. His dedication to God was simply remarkable.

As a Bible teacher, he was extraordinary. We had meaningful Bible studies at home, almost every day, and those moments together shaped our faith and deepened our love for the Word of God. He was also a cancer survivor and a storm survivor. We walked through the hardest times of life together - the most challenging and the most miraculous. Orrett was so strong, and through it all, he remained steadfast in his faith, knowing that God was by his side.

He fought the good fight and finished his race with grace. In his final moments, he parted from us peacefully, leaving us with instructions, words of encouragement and guidance. Even on his deathbed, he embraced the presence of the Lord. As I held onto him so tightly, the time came for me to let him go, and I knew he was ready.

Sleep on, my dear friend - you have done well. I miss you beyond words, but I know that we will meet again in the sweet by and by. All glory to the Most High God.

With love always,
Grace-Ann (Grace, Mommy, Sandi, GAS)
